

Chancery Sale of Real Estate

[illegible]

Petition to Amend Charter.

The company be changed to the Memphis Wood and Coal Company, and the said company or it be acquired by said company before the expiration of the term of the said lease, the right of the Memphis Wood and Coal Company to the said premises and the rights of the Memphis Wood Works.
 And the said parties of the first part and the said parties of the second part and their heirs and assigns do hereby covenant and agree that the said premises and the rights therein shall be held by the said company or it be acquired by said company for the use to be made, may be employed for or against said company.
 That the purpose, business and objects of the said company shall be to acquire and purchase and to hold and to manage and to operate and to control the said premises and the rights therein for the use and necessary for the purpose of manufacturing and for the use of the said company and to operate a planing-mill, found in number, etc., and to use the same for the purpose of manufacturing and for the use of the said company and to amend and to conform to the above, (for the purpose of the said company).
 It is therefore ordered, That said parties declaring do hereby certify that the foregoing is the substance of the proceedings had in the courthouse of said court, in Memphis, Tennessee, on the 12th day of March, A. D.
 1882, and show same, if any they have,
 in full and complete conformity with the prayer for in this petition; and that a copy of the foregoing proceedings is on file in the office of the Clerk of the said court in the Memphis office, this 12th day of March, 1882.
 EDWARD A. COLE, Clerk and Master.
 In presence of
 N. S. Edwards, solr. for petitioners. mhst

Wholesale Sale of Real Estate

[illegible]

Chancery Sale of Real Estate
 —ON—
SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1872.
 No. 415—John Green et al. vs. A. L. Mitchell et al.—In the Second Chancery Court of Shelby county, Tennessee.
By virtue of an interlocutory order of sale made in this cause, I will sell to the highest bidder at public sale, in front of the Second Chancery court-room, on Second street, Memphis, Tennessee,
On Saturday, May 4, 1872,
 Within legal hours, the following described real estate:
 A certain tract of land in Shelby county, Tennessee, described and bounded as follows:

beginning at a stake, from which north 39° 45' 30" E. 100 links to a stake; thence south 33° 15' 30" E. 100 links to a stake; thence south 33° 15' 30" E. 40 chains and fifty (50) links to a stake; from which south 39° 45' 30" E. 100 links to a stake; thence east eleven (11) chains and seventy-four (74) links to a stake in the field; thence north 33° 15' 30" E. 40 chains and fifty (50) links to a stake; from which south 33° 15' 30" E. 100 links, an ash marked II; thence west eleven (11) chains and seventy-four (74) links to a stake; from which north 39° 45' 30" E. 100 links to a stake; and being part of original grant 914 for 300 acres, in the name of George Lobert.

Term of sale—On a credit of seven and eighteen months, purchaser executing notes, bearing interest with good security; non-repayment of notes of redemption barred. This April 2, 1872.

Petition to Amend Charter.
No. 586.—First Chancery Court of Shelby county.

WHEREAS, The President and Directors of the railroad company, chartered by the laws of Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee, under the name and style of the Selma, Marion and Memphis Railroad Company of Tennessee and Alabama, Marion and Mississippi, of the Selma, Marion and Memphis Railroad Company of Alabama, and which is designated in the Tennessee charter granted it as the Marion and Memphis Railroad Company, have filed a petition in the First Chancery Court of Shelby county, pray-this; that the corporate name adopted by the Tennessee Legislature be changed, so as to correspond with the corporate name of Mississippi and Alabama, thereby making the corporate name identical in the three (3) States.

It is therefore ordered, That all persons residing in the State of Tennessee, appearing herein, at the court-house of said Court, in Memphis, Tennessee, on or before the first Monday of the month of January next, if they have, any, said amendment, as aforesaid, said petition, should not be granted; and that a copy of this order be published for thirty days in the Memphis Appeal. This March 20, 1872.

A copy—attest:
 JOHN A. COLE, Clerk and Master.
 By E. J. BLACD, D. C. and M.
 Harris, Pillow & Pillow, Solicitors for petitioners.

TO CONTRACTORS.

Panola County Courthouse, Miss.

PROPOSALS are invited for the building of a Court House at Sardis, Panola county, Mississippi. The drawings and specifications can be seen at the office of the architect, Jas. B. Cook, 35 Madison street, Memphis, Tennessee.

All proposals to be sealed and delivered on or before the 31st day of May, 1901, to J. C. Harrison, Esq., Clerk of the Chancery Court at Sardis, Mississippi, or with James B. Cook, at Memphis, Tenn.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right of rejecting any or all bids.

W. W. HOWE,
L. P. COOPER,
Commissioners.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

TO THE TAX-PAYERS of the Fourteenth Civil District of Shelby county, Tennessee: THIS is to notify you that I will attend at No. 337 Second street, Memphis, Tennessee,

On the 25th day of April, 1872,

for the purpose of assessing the Real and Personal property subject to taxation in my District, according to the laws of this State, at which times you are hereby notified to attend and furnish me, UNDER OATH, a correct statement and list of all your real and personal, subject to taxation in my Disand, giving an adequate description of the same, and the names of the persons to whom the same are due. And in the event that any Tax-payers of said District fail to attend at the place and time hereinabove specified, then I will make a correct list of all his taxable property, then I will demand the list as his residence and add twenty-five per cent to this assessment. If any Tax-payer fail to give a correct list upon such demand made, I will assess on their property such failing to comply with the law as DOUBTS is value.

JOHN T. ELLIOTT,
Tax Assessor for the Fourteenth Civil District of Shelby county.

Notice to Tax-Payers.

TO the Tax-payers of the Fifth Civil District of Shelby county, Tennessee: This is to purpose of assessing the real and personal property subject to taxation in any district or equivalent, the following notice is hereby given. At the same time you are hereby notified to attend at the office of the assessor, furnish him, under oath, a correct statement and list of all your property, both real and personal, subject to taxation in said district, giving an accurate description of the same separately, together with the value. And in the event you, as a taxpayer of said district, fail to attend at the office of the assessor, upon this notice, and furnish a correct list of all its taxable property, then I will demand the list as a condition of the assessment of said district. If any tax-payer fail to give a correct list upon such demand made, I will assess him upon their property thus failing to comply with the law in this respect.

JOHN SWEETMAN, J. F.
As Administrator of the Estate of John S. Sweetman, of Shelby county, a public administrator.

NOTICE.

HAVING been appointed and qualified Administrator on the estate of John S. Sweetman, deceased, in and for the County of Shelby, Tennessee, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said estate to present the same, properly authenticated, to me or to J. M. G. Davis, at his office, No. 45 Madison street, in the city of Memphis, all persons indebted to the estate will please call at said office and make settlement of the same.

A package of valuable papers, belonging to said estate, and not yet accounted for, was returned to me when it was deposited, or who may have taken it, and who may have disposed of it, is hereby notified to return it to me.

James H. ABY, John Bunting Lee, or any other persons claiming to be the executor of the estate, will please return or report the same to me. March 25, 1872.

JAMES M. ROYDERS,
E. H. CLAYTON,
Administrators.